

Dylan Glenn

Managing Director, Guggenheim Advisors, LLC

Mr. Glenn a Managing Director at Guggenheim Advisors, LLC. Formerly, he served as Deputy Chief of Staff to Governor Sonny Perdue of Georgia. As a Deputy Chief of Staff, Mr. Glenn was responsible for all External Affairs. Mr. Glenn also served two years as Special Assistant to the President George W. Bush. He was a member of the National Economic Council team advising the President on various economic issues. He has spent more than 15 years in national and state politics. During his career, Mr. Glenn has actively participated in a number of environmental and socio-economic initiatives, including, as founder of the Earth Conservation Corps., a White House initiative under President George H. W. Bush, and as founder and director of the South Georgia Economic Development Corporation, formed to assist economic growth in the poorest part of his state. Mr. Glenn received his BA degree from Davidson College in North Carolina.