

Robert Delbos

Adviser to the India Trade Centre for Oil & Gas

Born in 1943 in the U.S.A., Bi- national (Both French and American).

R. DELBOS graduated from H.E.C., among the best European business school, in 1967.

He joined the French natural gas monopoly Gaz de France for 20 years and ended as head of the Financial and Treasury Department.

In 1990, R. DELBOS became CEO of Banque Pétrofigaz, a credit bank dedicated in loans to energy investments.

Retired in 2003, he founded Altergaz, first and main competition to Gaz de France Suez in the newly opened French market of natural gas. The Company was sold end of 2010 to E.N.I to match the ambition of challenging G.D.F. Suez in the French market.

Among other activities, R. DELBOS is now adviser to the India Trade Centre for Oil & Gas.