

Thomas Eymond-Laritz

Senior adviser based, APCO Worldwide's London office

Thomas Eymond-Laritz is a senior adviser based in APCO Worldwide's London office.

He specializes in reputation and crisis management and strategic communication for corporations, foundations, governments and individuals. He has 14 years of experience in public affairs and management of sensitive political and economic dossiers in the European Union, United States and emerging markets.

Before joining APCO Worldwide, Mr. Eymond-Laritz served as an adviser to Georgian President Mikheil Saakashvili and Bulgarian Prime Minister Simeon Saxe-Cobourg and in the offices of French Prime Ministers Lionel Jospin and Jean-Pierre Raffarin. He also served five years as chief of staff to Victor Pinchuk, a Ukrainian investor and philanthropist.

Mr. Eymond-Laritz established and was appointed president of the Victor Pinchuk Foundation, the largest private philanthropic foundation in Eastern Europe. He also developed the Yalta European Strategy (YES), an international network promoting Ukraine joining the European Union, well known for its annual conference in Yalta. He created, developed and organized the Davos Ukrainian Lunches and the Davos Philanthropic Roundtables.

Thomas Eymond-Laritz is a French citizen. He graduated from the Ecole des Mines de Paris and the Corps des Mines.