

Sylvie Goulard

Member of the European Parliament for the West of France

Born: 1964

Married, 3 children

www.sylvie-goulard.eu

June 2009 Elected French Member of the European Parliament for the West of France (MoDem)
Member of the Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee (ECON) - ALDE coordinator, member of the Special Financial, Economic and Social Crisis Committee (CRIS), substitute member of the Agriculture and Rural Development Committee (AGRI), substitute member of the Special Policy Challenges Committee (SURE) - multiannual financial framework
Member of the parliamentary EU/Japan delegation, member of the intergroup "Extreme Poverty and Human Rights, Fourth World Committee"

December 2006 Elected President of the European Movement - France. Re-elected from December 2008 to June 2010. June 2010 appointed Spokesperson of the European Movement – France

Lecturer at the College of Europe in Bruges

On leave from position as Foreign Affairs advisor (since October 2004)

Career

- 2001- 2004 Member of the group of political advisors to Romano Prodi, President of the European Commission (working on the European Convention; neighbourhood policy; general political advice)
- 1999-2001 Researcher for CERI; February 2005-February 2009 Research Associate for CERI (Sciences Po);
- 1996-1999 Policy Officer at the Centre for Analysis and Forecasting (Policy planning staff) for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (European issues; responsible for cooperation with the Planungsstab de l'Auswärtiges Amt)
- 1993-1996 Council of State (litigation department, social department)
- 1989-1993 Management of legal affairs of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (community law and international public law)

Publications

- We Must Cultivate our European Garden, Le Seuil, (June 2008) – about the Franco-German implications of the Mediterranean Union project
- Europe for Dummies, Editions First (March 2007 ; 2nd edition April 2009)
- The Cockerel and the Pearl, 50 years of Europe, Le Seuil, (January 2007)
- The Great Turque and the Republic of Venice (Fayard), with a foreword from Robert Badinter (2004 – European Book Prize 2005) ; translated into German and Greek

Academic qualifications

- National School of Administration (ENA – promotion 1989) ;
- Sciences Po (Institut d'études politiques, Paris) – 1986 ;
- Law degree: University of Aix-en-Provence

Additional activities

Member of the Board of Directors of Europartenaire; Member of the Scientific Committee of the Institut für Europäische Politik, Berlin; Member of the Board of Directors of the BBI Foundation (Berlin Brandenburgisches Institut für die deutsch-französische Zusammenarbeit in Europa, Genshagen); Member of the Advisory board, The European Policy Center - EPC (Brussels)

Decoration

Cross of Merit of the Federal German Republic (2003); Knight of the National Order of Merit (France)

Languages

German, English, Italian