

Steve Howard

Secretary General, The Global Foundation

Founding Secretary General of The Global Foundation, the Australian-based citizens' organization and earlier on, as the inaugural Executive Director of the Committee for Melbourne, from 1989 to 1995, where he led the modern renaissance strategy for Melbourne and subsequently served on a number of Australia Government and other advisory boards. He was previously Director of the Sydney Tourism Marketing Board.

Steve has an extensive global professional and personal network from 30 year of involvement in business, civic affairs, government and public policy formation in Australia and around the world. Concurrently, he has acted as a private advisor to a number of global companies and institutions.

He serves as Chair of the Editorial Panel for Australia Network, Australia's international television service seen in 44 countries, and has recently assumed the role of Vice-Chairman of the Global Private Equity Alliance launched in Beijing on 14 November 2010.