

Hisayoshi Ina

Foreign policy columnist at the Nihon Keizai Shimbun (The Nikkei Newspapers) in Tokyo

Hisayoshi Ina is a foreign policy columnist at the Nihon Keizai Shimbun (The Nikkei Newspapers) in Tokyo. He received the Vaughan-Ueda Memorial Prize (Japanese version of the Pulitzer Prize) in 1998 for his outstanding news gathering and analysis in international affairs. His journalistic career includes four years in the Nikkei's Washington, DC, bureau as chief political correspondent and, subsequently, as a fellow at the Foreign Policy Institute of the Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), Johns Hopkins University. Has also been an editorial writer and vice-chair of the editorial board of Nikkei. He lectures on media and international relations at Doshisha University Graduate School, Aoyama Gakuin University, and the University of the Sacred Heart, Tokyo. He started working for the Nikkei in 1976 after receiving a BA in political science from Waseda University in Tokyo.