

Jean Kerwat

Honorary Consul of the Republic of Croatia in the Principality of Monaco

International Business Consultant

Monegasque citizen. Married, two children.

Professional Degree in Architecture, University of Florence.

Professional activity: International Business Consulting, Market Analysis, Development of Partnerships and Joint-ventures, Corporate Public Relations.

Consultant to European Industrial Groups, mainly in the Construction and High-Technology sectors, for the development of new business in the Mediterranean Basin and the Middle-East.

Hi-Tech Start-ups development in Europe (1984 – 2002), Co-founder and Partner:

- Digital Architectural Projects Lab (CALCOMP Technology & APOLLO Computers Systems);

- Television Company for the production and digital storage of documentaries and images of the European architectural heritage, in collaboration with the DeAgostini / ATLAS Group, SONY Italy and TTV;

- IT & Telecommunications Agency, in partnership with Giorgio Galli Design and 21Investimenti – Benetton.

Partner and CEO of a Monaco based Telecommunications company, acquired by MONACO TELECOM in 2002;

Advisor to MONACO TELECOM for the development of new business, Joint-ventures & Partnerships (2003-2010).

Languages: French, English, Italian, Arabic.

Honorary Titles: Knight of the Order of Saint Charles, Knight of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta.

Associations: Secretary General of the MONACO AMBASSADORS CLUB, Trusted Advisor to MONACO PRIVATE LABEL, member of MONACO VENTURE CAPITAL ASSOCIATION - MVCA.