

Arnaud Lelouvier

Managing Partner, SI Capital Partners (SICP)

Arnaud has held leading roles in a diverse range of industry sectors. As the former CEO of Editions Moreux (professional publications on Africa, infrastructure and shipping) Arnaud carried out geopolitical analysis for the World Bank in more than twenty African countries. In addition, he is a member of both the Comité des Investisseurs Français en Afrique and the Forum Francophone des Affaires.

Arnaud is the Founder of Maya Finance (investment and real-estate management) and also the Founder and a Board Member of Quantam, a high frequency trading hedge fund.

With over 15 years of continuous experience in mergers, acquisitions and financial management, Arnaud has advised on and executed a wide range of M&A transactions. These include, the sale of a 25% stake in AvtoVAZ to Renault, the acquisition of LDV by GAZ, the sale of Groupe Moreux (publishing) to Mediagramme, the sale of Normandie Roto (printing) to Maury and the sale of Groupe Editions Maritimes (publishing) to Wolters Kluwer.

Having advised Presidents, heads of state and economic leaders throughout the MENA region, Arnaud brings a broad strategic vision and a wealth of contacts within the target client base of Strategic Initiatives of which Arnaud is a co-founder. He is also a Board Member of Executive Aircraft Sales, OMC and SI Retail.

Arnaud holds an MBA from HEC (France) in Corporate Strategy.