

Liviu Voinea

State Secretary, Ministry of Public Finance

Non-executive Board Member, Banca de Import Export a Romaniei – EximBank SA

Mr. Liviu Voinea has been State Secretary with the Ministry of Public Finance since May 2012 and Non-Executive Board Member of Banca de Import Export a Romaniei – EximBank SA for the second term (the first four years term ended in September 2012).

Mr. Voinea holds an MBA degree from Stockholm University (obtained in 1998) and a Ph.D. from the Academy of Economic Studies, Bucharest (obtained in 2000). He had a post-doctoral fellowship at the European Commission's Joint Research Institute in Seville, Spain (in 2004).

At present, along with his public functions he is also lecturing at the National School of Political and Administrative Studies, Bucharest, Department of International Relations and European Integration and Associate Professor in international economics at the Academy of Economic Studies, Faculty of International Business and Economics as Senior Lecturer.

Mr. Liviu Voinea received the prestigious "Virgil Madgearu" Romanian Academy Award for economics in 2007, for his book "Transnational corporations and global capitalism". Also, his most recent book The end of illusion economics. Crisis and anti-crisis: a heterodox approach was a best-seller in Romania. He published in international economic journals such as Economic of Transition, International Journal of Trade and Global Markets, Review of International Political Economy. He is a public figure in Romanian and international media, with numerous appearances on national TV and in international press such as Financial Times or Wall Street Journal.