

Sergey Chestnoy

Director of the International Department, UC Rusal

Sergey Chestnoy was appointed Director of Russian Aluminium (RUSAL) International Department in July 2001.

As Director of RUSAL International Department Mr. Chestnoy has direct responsibility for international business of the Company.

Mr. Chestnoy occupied a number of positions in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia since 1984, including Deputy Director of Department of North America, Special Adviser to the Russian sherpa in G-8, Director of the Economic Section of the Embassy of the Russian Federation in the USA (Washington) and Deputy Director of Department of Economic Cooperation. He directly took part in the negotiations concerning Russia's joining to IMF and IBRD, establishment of EBRD, arrangement of dialogue with OECD and Paris Club.

Born in Moscow, October 9, 1962, Mr. Chestnoy graduated from Moscow International Relations Institute in 1984, he obtained a doctorate (PhD) in Economics in 1989.