

Herbert Stepic

CEO, Raiffeisen Bank International

Personal Information

Date of Birth: 31.12.1946

Education

- 1968 Master's degree in business administration, Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration
- 1972 Doctorate in Economics and Commerce, Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration

Employment Career

- 1972 Assistant to the managing board in a private sector company
- 1973 Joined Genossenschaftliche Zentralbank AG (GZB), now Raiffeisen Zentralbank Österreich AG (RZB): Entrusted with establishing Raiffeisen's "foreign-trade promotion department"; responsible for promoting the exports, particularly to overseas regions, of Raiffeisen Group customers
- 1977 Managing Director of F.J. Elsner und Co., Vienna (GZB subsidiary specializing in East-West trade)
- 1978 Head of GZB's correspondent banking department: Responsible for establishing GZB's network of correspondent banks
- 1986 Director at Raiffeisen Zentralbank Österreich AG
- 1987 Member of the Board of RZB, responsible for RZB's international business
- 1995 Appointed Deputy Chairman of RZB
- 2001 CEO of Raiffeisen International Bank-Holding AG
- since 2010 CEO of Raiffeisen Bank International