

Jun Arima

Conseiller spécial, affaires environnementales mondiales, ministère de l'Economie, du Commerce et de l'Industrie du Japon (METI) et directeur général, Organisation Japonaise du Commerce Extérieur, Londres

Mr. Jun ARIMA joined the Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI) in 1982. Since then, he has been experiencing various positions with strong focus on energy and environment including Counselor, Permanent Delegation of Japan to the OECD (1996-99), Director, Energy and Environment Office, Director, Energy Efficiency Policy, Director, New Energy Policy Coordination, Agency of Natural Resources and Energy (ANRE), Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) (1999-2001), Director, International Energy Strategy, ANRE/METI (2001-2002), Head, Country Studies Division, International Energy Agency (2002-2006), Director, International Affairs Division, ANRE/METI (2006-2007), Counselor, International Energy Negotiation, ANRE/METI (2007-2008), Deputy Director General, Global Environmental Affairs, METI (2008-2011). He is posted in London as Director General, JETRO London since April 2011. Since 2000, he has been attending the UNFCCC COP negotiation 10 times.