

Constantin von Oesterreich

Président du directoire de la banque allemande HSH Nordbank

Constantin von Oesterreich, born 22 April 1953, trained as a banker at Deutsche Bank AG in Hamburg.

From 1975 onwards he held various positions at the bank in Hamburg and Singapore before moving to its Credit Risk Management unit in 1987. In 2000, after holding several managerial positions in credit risk management in Frankfurt, Singapore and London, he assumed the position of Global Head for Credit Risk Management Developed Markets (investment bank) in London.

From March 2001 until his departure from Deutsche Bank in late June 2009, he was Deputy Global Head Credit Risk Management Real Estate in Frankfurt and London.

Constantin von Oesterreich has been a member of the Management Board of HSH Nordbank since 1 November 2009, initially as Chief Risk Officer (CRO); later on he was also appointed Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and put in charge of the Restructuring Unit (RU). Since 1 November 2012 Constantin von Oesterreich has been the Bank's Chairman of the Management Board.