

Yang Jiemian

Président, Council of Academic Affairs, Shanghai Institute for International Studies (SIIS)

Dr. Jiemian YANG was born in Shanghai on October 6, 1951. He received his B.A. at the Shanghai Teachers' University, M.A. at the Shanghai Institute for International Studies (SIIS) and M.A. at the Fletcher School of Law & Diplomacy, Ph.D. at the Shanghai International Studies University. Currently he is Senior Fellow and President at the SIIS. Concurrently, Dr. Yang is on the boards of the Chinese People Institute of Foreign Affairs, the National Association of China-U.S. Friendship, the National Association of American Studies, Shanghai Association of International Relations, Shanghai Association of Taiwan Studies and many other organizations. Dr. Yang is also a guest professor/fellow at the PLA National Defense University, Fudan University, Shanghai International Studies University and Soochow University. His honors include National Special Awards, Shanghai Outstanding Talent Award and several Shanghai Awards in Social Sciences. Dr. Yang has published many papers or books on international relations and American foreign policies. His most recent books include: Sino-US Relations in Post-Cold War Era: Elaboration and Exploration, The Shanghai People's Press, Shanghai, 1997; Sino-US Relations in Post-Cold War Era: Comparative Studies on Foreign Policies, The Shanghai People's Press, Shanghai, 2000. The Taiwan Issue and the World Configuration of Powers: Changes and Challenges (co-authored), The Shanghai People's Press, Shanghai, 2002; International Terrorism and Contemporary International Relations: Impacts and Influence of the "9•11" Attacks (co-authored), The Guizhou People's Press, 2002; International Cooperation on Anti-Terrorism: Thinking Beyond Geopolitics (co-authored), The Shishi Press, 2003; Sino-US Relations in Post-Cold War Era: Crisis Management Comparative Studies, The Shanghai People's Press, Shanghai, 2004; Grand Cooperation: The Changing World and China's Global Strategy, The Tianjin People's Press, Tianjin, 2005; Grand Matching-up: China-U.S. Mutual Strategies and Policies, The Tianjin People's Press, Tianjin, 2007; Grand Integration: Trends of Asian Economic Cooperation, The Tianjin People's Press, Tianjin, 2007.