

Carlos Pérez-Verdía

Chief of Cabinet, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mexico

Date of Birth: April 29, 1968
Mexico City, Mexico

EDUCATION:

1994-2000 University of Chicago, USA.
Ph.D. in Economics
Specialization Areas: Macroeconomics, International Economics,
Growth and Development.

1998-1992 Universidad Iberoamericana
BS. Economics

WORK EXPERIENCE

2013-present Chief of Cabinet, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mexico

2010 - 2012 Executive Director, International Monetary Fund

2004 - 2009 Manager- Domestic Operations, Banco de México

2001-2004 Manager- Analysis of Central Bank Operations
Banco de México

2000-2001 Researcher- Market Analysis and Risk Management
Banco de México

1994-2000 Teaching positions in Macroeconomics, Assistant Professor, Research
Assistant
University of Chicago, USA

1992-1994 Trader- Foreign Exchange Department
Banco de México

OTHER APPOINTMENTS, PUBLICATIONS

International Monetary Fund. Specialist, Technical Assistant Missions. Honduras (2008); Costa Rica (2006); República Dominicana (2005); Mozambique (2003); Angola (2002).

Publications:

With Leandro Arellano, Mexico's Foreign Policy 2012-2018, Instituto Matías Romero

With Serge Jenneau, "Reducing financial vulnerability: the development of the domestic government bond market in Mexico". BIS Quarterly Review, December 2005