

Joris Dierckx

Country Head, BNP Paribas Korea

EXPERIENCE

Joris Dierckx started his career in 1995 as Graduate Trainee at Generale Bank in Belgium. In 1996 he was appointed as Trade Finance Manager in Mumbai, India. He moved to Ireland to work at KBC Finance as Vice President in Project Finance in 1999.

In 2001, Joris was appointed as Vice President for Export & Project Finance Asia at Fortis, which was later merged into the BNP Paribas Group and became BNP Paribas Fortis. In 2004 he was made Head of Export & Project Finance Asia and served until 2010 in Singapore and Tokyo.

From 2008 until 2010, Joris was country head for Japan at Fortis while also serving as interim Head of Merchant Banking Asia.

In 2010, Joris was named country head of Greece for BNP Paribas and in 2012 he was appointed to serve as the country head of South Korea.

EDUCATION and OTHERS

Joris holds a Post-graduate degree in Finance from University of Leuven, a Master of Law degree from University of London and Bachelor's degree from the University of Antwerp. He is Belgian nationality and speaks English, French and Dutch. Born in 1969 and married with three children.