

François-Xavier Bouis

Founder and President
Compagnie Financière Jacques Cœur – CFJC

François-Xavier Bouis started his professional career in 1987 within investment banks. In 1998, he opened the French subsidiary of a Swiss bank and developed the business with professional investors. In 2003, he founded Compagnie Financière Jacques Coeur - a leading European financial multi-specialist broker dedicated to institutional investors.

François-Xavier graduated from IEP of Bordeaux and holds Post-graduate degrees in Public Law and in International Relations from the University of Paris II.