

Philippe Hardouin

Founder of CSPH International

Philippe Hardouin, with a PhD in Economics, is a former publisher in social sciences (economy, law, sociology) and literature. He then held senior executive positions for more than 20 years in many French and American multinational companies – from Thomson to Alcatel, Digital Equipment (DEC), AlliedSignal, Honeywell, Vivendi and Lafarge – with operations in the five continents, most of them in the technology and media sectors. He has acquired a recognized experience in communications and public affairs management, reputation and policy issues.

In 2008, he founds CSPH International, a public affairs & communications consultancy company with a focus on energy, environment, industry matters and creative industries and in particular a strong involvement in digital economy.

On these subjects, he regularly collaborates with the EU Commission and think tanks such as Confrontations Europe.
