

Thierry Soret

Focal point and policy advisor at UNDP

Focal point and policy advisor at UNDP for all G20 related matters since the inception of the G20 at the leaders' level in 2008 Thierry Soret is Coordinator for G20 and Multilateral Affairs, Strategic Policy since 2014. He acts as UN Sous-Sherpa in the G20, and UNDP representative in the G20 Development Working Group. He joined UNDP in 2007 as policy specialist on global governance issues and provided policy support and strategic thinking to the UNDP Administrator and contributed to the drafting of several UN reports on global governance and multilateralism. Prior to joining UNDP, he was the Executive Director of the European Think Tank "Confrontations-Europe". Previously, he was a policy advisor on globalization issues to Mr. Francois Hollande.

He has published in various political science journals (Global Policy, Jindal Journal of Public Policy, Confrontations La Revue...) and his latest book, Crise dans la gouvernance économique mondiale, was prefaced by Mr. Hubert Vedrine. He was admitted at the National School of Administration (ENA), Paris. He holds a Master Degree in Political Science and International Relations from 'Sciences-Po' Paris, and a Degree in Philosophy from the Paris-XII University.