

Thomas Bagger

Head of Policy Planning at the German Federal Foreign Office

born in Lueneburg, Lower Saxony, Germany, 21 October 1965
Married to Anita Bagger, three children

Current position: Head of Policy Planning, German Foreign Ministry, Berlin

Professional experience: 2009-2011 Head of the Minister's Office, German Foreign Ministry

2006-2009 German Embassy Washington D.C., USA
(Deputy Head, Political Section)

2002-2006 German Embassy Ankara/Turkey
(Press&Political Affairs)

1998-2002 German Foreign Ministry, Bonn/Berlin
(Office of Foreign Minister Joschka Fischer)

1996-1998 German Embassy Prague/Czech Republic
(Press&Political Affairs)

1995/96 German Foreign Ministry, Bonn
(Office of Foreign Minister Klaus Kinkel)

1994 German Foreign Ministry, Bonn, EU Affairs

joined the German diplomatic service in 1992

1990-1992 research associate at SWP (Institute of International Affairs, Ebenhausen/Germany)

Education: studies in political science, economics and public law in Munich (1986-1988), Paris (1988-1989) and at the University of Maryland, College Park (Fulbright scholar 1989/1990)

M.A. in Government & Politics from UMCP 1990

Dr. rer.pol., Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich 1992

Military service 1984-1986