

Sean Cleary

Executive Vice-Chairman of the FutureWorld Foundation and Chairman of Strategic Concepts (Pty) Ltd

Seán Cleary is Founder and Executive vice-chair of the FutureWorld Foundation, Chairman of Strategic Concepts (Pty) Ltd, Managing Director of the Centre for Advanced Governance, Member of the Board of Trustees, Salzburg Global Seminar and Rocky Mountain Institute; and of the Board of Abraaj Capital Ltd and Operation Hope; Chairman, International Advisory Board, Operation Hope, Advisory Board of Global Economic Symposium and a Director of Companies. Guest Lecturer on global corporate strategy at the Gordon Institute of Business Science at the University of Pretoria, Wits Business School, Stellenbosch University, Henley Management College and the Wharton School. Guest lecturer on the strategic challenges of globalisation and conflict resolution at defence colleges, universities and institutes. He is a Strategic Adviser to the Chairman of the World Economic Forum and a Faculty Member of the Parmenides Foundation

He studied social sciences and law at the University of South Africa, the University of Cape Town and Pahlavi University in Iran, and holds an MBA from Henley Management College at Brunel University in the United Kingdom. He served in the South African Navy on the staff of the Commander Maritime Defence before commencing a diplomatic career in the Middle East, USA and Namibia. As Chief Director in Namibia in the mid-1980s, he initiated negotiations between all political parties, the release of political prisoners and the adoption of a Bill of Rights, paving the way for independence.

He is a member of the Faculty of the Parmenides Foundation and lectures on global corporate strategy at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, the Graduate School of Business at the University of the Witwatersrand, Henley Management College, the Gordon Institute of Business Science of the University of Pretoria, and Stellenbosch University; and on conflict resolution, the challenges of globalisation and development economics at several U.S and European universities and institutes.

He is a lecturer on the National Security Management Course at the South African Defence Staff College, a research associate of the South African Institute of International Affairs, a Fellow of the World Economic Forum and Strategic Adviser to the Chairman, a member of the WEF's African Task Force, Chairman of the Global Advisory Board of Operation Hope, and a Trustee of the South African Foundation for Conciliation.

He was a member of the Facilitating and Preparatory Committees of the South African Peace Accord and Chairman of the Working Group on the Code of Conduct for Political Parties and Organizations, an EXCO Member of the NEPAD (New Programme for Africa's Development) Business Steering Group, a member of the Board of LEAD International, and served on national Advisory Committees in Namibia.

He is a recipient of academic and public service awards and has been published in South African, British, German and U.S. journals. He is the co-author, with Thierry Malleret, of two books on risk, Resilience to Risk (Human and Rousseau, 2006), and Global Risks (Palgrave Macmillan, 2007), and has contributed chapters to several others, including Learning from Catastrophes (Wharton, 2009).