

Corinne Colloc'h

Head of Corporate Development, Airbus Group

Head of Corporate Development airbus Group: Responsible for supporting Group strategic development and portfolio review in strong coordination with operational Divisions . Coordinate strategic networks within the Group to provide accurate and on time information and analysis to the top management. In charge of orchestrating Merger and Acquisition activities and Post Merger Integration expertise in the Group.

Previous Positions:

In former functions she previously led the Airbus Group Internal Audit with a specific focus on major programme review and risk management. She used to work in Airbus Group Inc in Washington DC as head of integration, strategy and planning with a strong focus on the North American Defense and Security market and also supported the Defense and Security Division in strategic and business development matters. She also worked for Airbus group Merger and Acquisition department.