

Marième Diop

Desk Manager, President's Delivery Unit, Senegal

Marième Diop is currently a desk manager at the President of Senegal's Delivery Unit, where she is in charge of coordinating and monitoring five of the country's twenty-seven flagship development projects. A graduate of Telecom Paris, she worked as an analyst for BearingPoint Consulting before joining the telecommunication giant, Orange, as a business consulting manager. In her current role with the government, Diop is tasked with leveraging Senegal's advantageous geographical location to attract top investors and tourists from around the Atlantic Basin.