

Hossein Amirabdollahian

Deputy Foreign Minister for Arab and African Countries
Islamic Republic of Iran

Education:

PhD. in International Relations from Tehran University

Master of Arts in International Relations from Tehran University

Bachelor of Arts in Diplomatic Relations from the Iranian Foreign Ministry College of International Relations

Fluent in Arabic and English languages

Scientific, Research and Academic works:

a- Books:

- "Inefficiency of the Greater Middle-East Plan in the Islamic Awakening Movement; Spring 2012; published by the Iranian Foreign Ministry Research and Training Center

- "US Contradicting Policy in the New Iraq"; 2007; published by Media Publication

- "Dual-Containment Policy"; Autumn 1999; published by Besat Publication

b- Papers:

- Dual-Containment Plan and Damato Plan; Tehran University- Faculty of Law and Political Sciences Magazine; 1997

- "Baghdad and Washington Security Agreement: The US Praxeology in New Iraq"; Foreign Policy Quarterly, Spring 2009

- "Syrian Crisis and Sustainable Regional Security"; Strategic Studies Quarterly-Summer 2013

- "Middle-East Developments and the Case Study on Bahrain"; Strategic Studies Quarterly (Scientific and Research) Summer 2011

c- Teaching Experience:

- Professor in the Iranian Foreign Ministry College of International Relations

- PhD Thesis advisor (judge) in Tehran University- Faculty of Law and Political Sciences

- Founding Member of the West Asia Research Center (International Relations Think Tanks)

Work Experience:

2011 until now Deputy Foreign Minister for Arab and African Countries

2010 Director General for the Persian Gulf and the Middle-East

2007-2010 Iran's Ambassador to Bahrain

2006-2007 Head of the Special Department for Iraq (Foreign Ministry)

2006 Deputy Director General for the Persian Gulf and the Middle-East

2003-2006 Special Assistant of the Foreign Minister for Iraqi Affairs

2001 Deputy of the First Persian Gulf Political Department

1997-2001 Political Expert and Deputy Ambassador in the Iranian Embassy in Baghdad

1992 Political Expert of the First Persian Gulf Political Department