

THIERRY DE MONTBRIAL

President and Founder of the World Policy Conference

Conclusion

Ladies and gentlemen, I just have one final word for today to say about Mr Stepic. I know that you are not ready for a third speech, so I just want to thank Mr Stepic. I think the bet is entirely won. I also think that your speech should not only be listened to, but should also be read. Thank you very much for your speech and thank you very much for your hospitality.
