

Mouna Cherkaoui

Professor of Economics, Mohamed V University – Agdal

Mouna Cherkaoui, is Professor of Economics at the University Mohamed V, Faculty of Law, Economics and Social Sciences in Rabat Agdal since 1989. Mouna Cherkaoui holds a Masters and a PHD in Economics with a specialization in international trade and finance obtained at Arizona State University.

She previously served as an Advisor to the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research. She is currently a member of the Economic Research Forum (ERF) and a member of the Arab Development Portal Strategic Advisory Board. She was a member of the Advisory Committee on Economic Research and Policy Analysis on gender (GERPA) of the World Bank.

Her research interest includes international economic issues but also issues of poverty and inequality.

She was invited as a teacher and researcher to many universities and conducted research and consultations for various national and international organizations such as UNCTAD, UNDP and the World Bank.

She also coordinated a number of research projects related to international trade, pro-poor growth and migration.