

Susan Liautaud

Founder and Managing Director of Susan Liautaud & Associates Limited

Dr. Susan Liautaud is the Founder and Managing Director of Susan Liautaud & Associates Limited, a boutique advisory firm advising global leaders and corporate, non-profit, academic and governmental institutions internationally on complex ethics matters.

She is the Chair of Council (trustees) of the London School of Economics and Political Science and Vice Chair elect of the Global Partnership for Education (GPE). She is the author of the book The Power of Ethics published on January 5, 2021. She also founded a non-profit collaborative platform for debate on innovative ethics called The Ethics Incubator. She teaches cutting-edge ethics courses at Stanford University.

She serves on a number of other boards and advisory boards, including: UK Cabinet Office's Advisory Committee on Business Appointments; the Pasteur Institute; Stanford HAI (Stanford Institute for Human Centered Artificial Intelligence) Advisory Council; SAP AI Ethics Advisory Panel; and the Freeman Spogli Institute for International Affairs at Stanford. She formerly served as Chair of the Doctors Without Borders/ Médecins Sans Frontières US Advisory Board, to the Advisory Council to the UK Centre for Data Ethics and Innovation board, and as member of Care International Supervisory Board.

Susan Liautaud has a PhD in Social Policy from the London School of Economics and Political Science, a JD from Columbia University Law School, a MA in Chinese Studies from the University of London SOAS, and two BAs and a MA from Stanford University..