

Marc Mourre

Executive Chairman of Global Markets Commodities, Natixis

Marc is Executive Chairman of Global Markets Commodities at Natixis.

He has over 30 years' banking experience, primarily with Morgan Stanley, where he was latterly Managing Director, Vice Chairman of the Commodities Division and Chairman of the firm's African business. His experience at Morgan Stanley also includes co-founding the bank's oil trading activities in London in 1986, establishing its energy trading activity in Asia in 1988, and setting up its Singapore office for commodities in 1990. Before joining the finance industry, Marc worked three years for the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs as Cultural Attaché in Hong Kong, and then at Elf Aquitaine (now Total) for over four years as a crude oil trader. Marc joined Natixis as a Senior Adviser in March 2017, and was appointed to his current role in October 2017.

He holds a Master's degree in science in business administration from Sup. de co., Marseille, a D.E.A in business administration from ESSEC/ IAE, Aix en Provence and a D.E.S.S in international trade and transportation from Aix-Marseille University. He received a scholarship from FNEGE (Fondation nationale pour l'enseignement de la gestion) for various research and taught international finance at HEC for four years. He is Chairman of the Trustees of the Friends of the French Institute in London, Chevalier des Arts et des Lettres and Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur.