

Alexander Panov

Member of the Advisory Board of the Security Council of the Russian Federation

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary. Doctor of Political Sciences. Senior Research Fellow at the Institute for the US and Canadian Studies. Professor at MGIMO and the MGU. Member of the expert council to the Security Council of Russia. Member of the Advisory Board of the Security Council of the Russian Federation and Head of the department of diplomacy of MGIMO.

Born in 1944.

Finished his studies at MGIMO in 1968.

1968-1971: attaché at the Russian embassy in Japan

1971-1977: professor at MGIMO

1977-1981: 3rd, 2nd Secretary of the USSR Representation to the UNO

1981-1983: First Secretary of the MFA of USSR

1983-1988: advisor at the USSR embassy in Japan

1988-1991: MFA of USSR, director

1992-1993: ambassador in South Korea

1994-1996: vice Minister of Foreign Affairs

1996-2003: ambassador in Japan

2004-2006: ambassador in Norway

2006-2010: rector of the MFA Diplomatic Academy

Fluent in English and Japanese.

He wrote several articles and books, including on Japan.