

Othman Bouabid

Interior Ministry of the Kingdom of Morocco

Interior Ministry of the Kingdom of Morocco

Degrees and studies

Primary education in the United States of America (State of Connecticut) and Morocco (Casablanca and Khouribga).

Secondary education
Descartes high school in Rabat.

Graduate Studies

Former student at the Institute of Political Studies of Paris

Bachelor of Law 1977 (Law Faculty of Rabat).

Postgraduate Diploma in Political Science (DEA) in April 1979

University of Law, Economics and Social Sciences of Paris II (Panthéon-Sorbonne) – thesis on "Moroccan foreign policy."

October 1982: Doctor's degree of state in Law and Political Science (Honorable mention), thesis topic: "Moroccan policy of the United States" (University of Paris II Panthéon Sorbonne).

Author of several articles and publications including "Diplomatic extensions of the Green March" in the collective work: "His Majesty Hassan II presents the green march" (Plon 1990)

Associate Member of the French Institute of International Relations, Paris (IFRI).

Original frame

Principal administrator

Administrative career

Administrator at the headquarters of the Interior Ministry from January, 1st 1983.

Administrator at the Interior Ministry from March, 15th 1983.

Chief of Staff for the Minister of Interior from July, 3rd 1986 to November, 9, 1999.

Invested by His Majesty King Hassan II Governors for central administration on 22 January 1991, with effect from 1986.

Honors

Knight of the Order of Throne in March 1997.

Made Knight of the Legion of Honour by President Jacques Chirac on 6 May 1998.

Consultant since 2000.