

Rasvan Radu

CEO of UniCredit Bank

Rasvan Radu is the Chief Executive Officer of UniCredit Bank, coordinating UniCredit Group's banking, leasing and consumer finance activities in Romania. He is also Executive Vice President and former member of the International Advisory Board of UniCredit Group.

Rasvan Radu is a member of the Management Board of Aspen Institute Romania, former Chairman of the Business Advisory Commission of the Prime Minister of Romania and, since 2010, he has been a member of the Trilateral Commission.

Rasvan Radu's banking experience started in 1991 within Romanian Commercial Bank, taking on various responsibilities and coordinating Corporate Finance and Capital Markets areas. In 2000 he was appointed Executive Vice-President of Romanian Savings Bank and in 2001 he became the Retail Executive Vice-President of Raiffeisen Bank in Romania.

He was nominated as the Chief Executive Officer of UniCredit Romania in 2005.

Mr. Radu has an engineering degree from the Polytechnic University of Bucharest and an economy degree from Romanian American University - Bucharest. He also graduated from an MBA program with the Romanian branch of Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers in Paris and completed the Advanced Management Program of Harvard Business School.