

Nathalie Delapalme

Director of Research and Policy of the Mo Ibrahim Foundation

Executive Director (Research and Policy) of the Mo Ibrahim Foundation since June 2010. The Mo Ibrahim Foundation is an African Foundation that works on governance and leadership issues in Africa.

She is a member of the supervisory board of CFAO, and of the boards of Etablissements Maurel&Prom, Maurel&Prom International, and of the Pierre Fabre Foundation.

She served as Inspecteur général des finances at the French Ministry of Economy and Finances between 2007 and 2010, after having been Advisor in charge of Africa to the French Ministers of Foreign Affairs from 2002 to 2007, and Advisor to the French Minister of Development between 1995 and 1997.

She began her career at the French Sénat, where she served at the Finances and Budget Commission for several years, between 1984 and 1995 and again between 1997 and 2002, auditing a number of public expenditures, notably in the defence, foreign affairs, development, environment, research, education, and media sectors.

She graduated from Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris and holds a degree (DEA) in applied economics.
