

Sébastien Bazin

Chairman and CEO, AccorHotels

Sébastien Bazin, 54, holds a master in Economics from the Sorbonne University of Paris and began his career in the finance sector in 1985 in the United States.

In 1997, he joined Colony Capital to install and develop from Paris the European branch of the private investment firm. Within 15 years, he managed and participated in a number of investments in the hotel sector, including the buyout of the luxury hotel chains Fairmont and Raffles, acquisition and Management of hotel assets from La Générale des Eaux, Club Méditerranée and AccorHotels, acquisition of a stake in Lucien Barrière Group, and investment in AccorHotels.

Member of AccorHotels' board since 2005, he was appointed as Chairman and CEO of the Group in August 2013.

Administrator of Théâtre du Châtelet since 2013, Sébastien Bazin took over the presidency of this board on March 26th, 2015. He is also Vice-Chairman of the supervisory board of the Gustave Roussy Foundation and member of the Board of Directors of GE since April 2016.