

Philippe Richard

Director, International Affairs, FSRA

As the head of the International Affairs Department of the FSRA, Philippe Richard is responsible for all the bilateral and multilateral relationships of the regulator with its counterparts outside ADGM including liaising with national regulators.

Since his arrival in October 2015, Philippe Richard started the building up of the international relations of the regulator: joining the international standard setting organizations (IOSCO, IAIS, and BCBS)¹ and developing a network of regulators through bilateral MoUs. He contributes to strengthening the profile of the FSRA by ensuring its representation in international fora and its contribution to global financial stability and to the shaping of international regulatory reforms.

Prior to joining ADGM's FSRA, Philippe was the Director of the International Affairs Department at the French Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Résolution (ACPR). He was a member of the Advisory Board of the United Arab Emirates Securities and Commodities Authority between 2008 and 2009. From 2001 to 2008, he was the Secretary General of the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO).

In his earlier career, Philippe was also a Personal Assistant to Jacques de Larosière, the President of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD) from 1993 to 1997.

He holds a Diplôme d'Etudes Approfondies in International Economics from Paris Dauphine University, and is a graduate of the EDHEC business school of Lille and of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Paris.

¹ IOSCO: International Organization of Securities Commission. www.iosco.org

IAIS: International Association of insurance Supervision. www.iaisweb.org

BCBS: Basel Committee on Banking Supervision. www.bis.org/bcbs/