

Hubert Védrine

Founder of Hubert Védrine Conseil

Former student of the French Institute of Political Studies known as Sciences Po and of the National School of public policy called ENA, Hubert Védrine worked as a diplomatic advisor, spokesman, and secretary-general (chief of staff) with President François Mitterrand, from 1981 to 1995.

He then joined the Jeantet law firm from 1996 to 1997.

He was Minister of Foreign Affairs for five years during the Jacques Chirac presidency, from 1997 to 2002, when Lionel Jospin was prime minister.

In January 2003 Hubert Védrine created "HUBERT VEDRINE CONSEIL" (a public affairs consultancy that specializes in foreign, economic, and geo-political affairs).

He is the President of the François Mitterrand Institute.

In 2004, Hubert Védrine was appointed as an Independent Director at LVMH.

In 2005, he was one of twenty international members of the High Level Group for an "Alliance of Civilizations", created by Kofi Annan, MM Zapatero and Erdogan.
