

Thomas Gomart

Director of Ifri

Dr. Thomas Gomart (Ph.D in History at Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, and EMBA at HEC) is Director of Ifri (French Institute of International Relations based in Paris and Brussels). He previously was its Vice President for Strategic Development (2010-2015) and the director of its Russia/NIS Centre (2004-2013). He is also the co-editor of the trilingual electronic series Russie.Nei. Visions: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Russie.NEI.Visions_in_English.

Before joining the think tank industry, Gomart was a scholar (Assistant Professor at La Sorbonne, 1996-1999), a cadet officer in the Army (2000), and a policy entrepreneur (2001-2004). Joining Ifri in 2004, he set up the Russia/NIS centre. His academic and professional background has been closely related to post-Soviet space, but also to wider international issues (security, energy, and digital governance). As Lavoisier Fellow at the State Institute for International Relations (University-MGIMO – Moscow), Visiting Fellow at the Institute for Security Studies (European Union – Paris) and Marie Curie Fellow at the Department of War Studies (King's College – London), Gomart has acquired a diversified international experience.

Gomart has managed many projects with leading international think tanks (Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, CSIS, US Army War College, SVOP, MGIMO...) including high level officials from various governments, senior executives from global companies, NGO's activists, and leading journalists. As Vice President for Strategic Development, he dealt with fundraising, digital activities, and research marketing. As Researcher, he is currently working on Russia, digital governance, country risk, and think tanks. He recently published "The Return of Geopolitical Risk - Russia, China and the United States", Études de l'Ifri, Apr. 2016, Notre intérêt national. Quelle politique étrangère pour la France ?, (ed., with Thierry de Montbrial), Editions Odile Jacob, Jan. 2017, as well as "Foreign Policy Challenges for the Next French President", (ed., with Marc Hecker), Études de l'Ifri, Apr. 2017.
