

Sabine Jansen

Senior Lecturer
Conservatoire national des arts et métiers (CNAM), Paris

Sabine Jansen graduated and received her Ph.D. in modern history from Sciences Po; she also holds the Agrégation d'histoire and the Habilitation à diriger des recherches. She is currently Senior Lecturer at the Conservatoire national des arts et métiers (CNAM), Paris, and Research Fellow at the Laboratoire interdisciplinaire de recherches en sciences de l'action (Lirsa), Paris. Vice President of the Committee for Parliamentary and Political History, General Secretary of the Society of the History of the 5th Republic, she serves as member of the Editorial Board of Parlements and Revue historique, two peer-reviewed historical journals.

Sabine Jansen early research focused on the political and diplomatic history of the 4th and 5th Republic and led three books, Pierre Cot. Un antifasciste radical (Fayard, 2002); De Pierre Mendès France à Charles de Gaulle (Armand Colin/ Assemblée nationale, 2006) ; Les Boîtes à idées de Marianne. Etat, expertise et relations internationales, 1935-1985 (Editions du Cerf, 2017). In studying the history and role of the Centre d'études de politique étrangère and the Institut français des relations internationales (IFRI), two French diplomatic think tanks, she became increasingly interested in decision-making and expertise in the field of international relations.
