

Ula Nairne

Executive Director of StarFinder Investment Fund

Ula is Executive Director of StarFinder Investment Fund, a Board Member of the Institute of Economic Development Europe-Latin America (IDE EAL), owner/director of Nairne Ltd, a UK-based strategic economic development research and consultancy, and she was previously Director of Global Advisory Services at Geopolitical Intelligence Services AG, Liechtenstein.

Her international experience extends from working on United Nations assignments in Africa and Asia, to co-ordinating cross border co-operation projects in Europe and supporting businesses to realise their global expansion ambitions. She graduated in International Relations from the University of Warsaw and she holds an Executive MBA from the University of Quebec in Montreal, Warsaw School of Economics and the China University of Mining and Technology.

She has been the Vice-President of the Pro-European Forum of the Chancellery of the President of Poland, a Generation Europe representative at the European Parliament, and President of the Foreign Affairs Committee and a Member of the Science Council of the Political Science and International Relations Department at the University of Warsaw. As the Founding Chairwoman of the Young Diplomats' Centre in Poland, she had a key role in reactivating Visegrad Group cooperation and, as a Board Member of the Canadian Executive MBA, she is now developing business networks across the member countries, including France, Canada, Poland, Romania, Algeria, Tunisia, Mali, Dominican Republic, Peru, China, Vietnam and Mexico.