

Lionel Zinsou

Co-President of the Fondation AfricaFrance pour une croissance partagée Former Prime Minister in charge of economic development, evaluating public policy and promoting good governance in Benin

Prior to PAI, he has been since 1997 General Partner of Rothschild (1997-2008), the investment bank. He was Head of the global Consumer Products Group, and Head of Middle East and Africa.

Lionel Zinsou started his professional career as a lecturer in economics at Paris University (Paris XIII and Ecole Normale Supérieure) and a member of the Department of Industry Minister's Office, and the Prime Minister's Office. In 1986 and until 1997 he had joined Danone where he held various positions as Financial Controller, Corporate Development Director and then CEO of the grocery division.

Lionel Zinsou graduated from Ecole Normale Supérieure, Sciences Po and La Sorbonne in history and economics. He is a former research student of the London School of Economics and a "professeur agrégé de sciences économiques et sociales".

He is a member of the Board of the Institut Pasteur, of the Brookings Global Leadership Council (Washington D. C.) and of the High Level Financial Panel created by the G20 in 2010.