

Manaf Al-Hajeri

CEO of Kuwait Financial Centre, Markaz

Manaf Alhajeri is the Chief Executive Officer for Kuwait Financial Center, Markaz , since 2004. Markaz is a leading GCC asset management and investment banking institution with a strategic focus to achieve regional leadership in the Industry. Alhajeri was the Deputy Director in the Investment department at Kuwait Fund for Arab and Economic Development (KFAED). He serves as director or trustee in a number of private, governmental, educational, and non-profit boards and committees. He is currently a Board Member of Kuwait Direct Investment Promotion Authority (KDIPA) and the Board member of the National Bureau for Academic Accreditation and Education Quality Assurance, Kuwait. He is a Certified Financial Manager (CFM) from The Institute of Management Accountants (USA). He also holds a Master and Bachelor of Science(with distinction) degrees in Civil Engineering from Kuwait University. On December 5th 2013, upon a decree of the President of the French Republic, Manaf Alhajeri has been named “Knight of the National Order of Merit”. Alhajeri speaks English, French, Spanish, Turkish in addition to Arabic.