

Artem Malgin

Vice-rector of MGIMO-University

Dr. Malgin graduated from MGIMO in 1996. In 2000 he defended his PhD thesis on “The EU Mediterranean policy in 1950s-1990s”. Dr. Malgin is a vice-rector of MGIMO-University. He also holds a position of a professor at MGIMO Department of International Relations and Russia’s Foreign Policy.

Dr. Malgin is a Member of the Valdai Discussion Club Scientific Council, Member of the Scientific board at the Security Council of the Russian Federation, Member of the Council of the Foundation “Russian-Polish Center for Dialogue and Understanding”, coordinator of the Russian-French Civil Societies Forum “Trianon Dialogue”.

In 2014 he received the Award of the Government of Russian Federation in education and science.

Fluent in English, Polish and French.

Field of his professional interests includes European & Post-Soviet Studies, Russian Foreign and Security Policy, Polish Studies.

Dr. Malgin has more than 100 scientific and didactic publications.