

Elena L. Daly

Founder and Principal, EM Conseil

Elena Daly is an expert on Eurozone and emerging market sovereign debt management and investments, with an unusually rich transatlantic experience at the intersection of law, business and finance.

Ms Daly is the founder and Principal of EM Conseil, an independent consultancy. EM Conseil provides strategic and legal risk assessment advice to institutional clients on sovereign debt management matters, prospective investments (fixed income and private equity), workouts of distressed financial investments, as well as best practices in corporate governance and compliance. Her recent assignments included consulting on World Bank integrity monitorship of a global French company, as well as restructuring and unwinding trades to avoid exchange control risk in Europe and Latin America.

Ms. Daly served in General Counsel, strategy and risk-related senior positions at alternative investment funds at Citigroup, Fortress Group and Nomura International PLC. She advised the NYSE board on international issues.

The first Russian lawyer to graduate from a U.S. law school (Berkeley), she started her career at Sullivan & Cromwell and Cleary Gottlieb. She is a U.S. citizen.

Elena Daly is a frequent public speaker, and operates comfortably in multicultural businesses, boardrooms and academic environments. She is a member of the Euro50 think tank and contributing author to the expert volume Sovereign Debt Management (Oxford University Press, 2014).
