

Susan Liautaud

Founder of Susan Liautaud & Associates Limited

Susan Liautaud is Founder and Managing Director of Susan Liautaud & Associates Limited, an international ethics advisory firm. She also teaches cutting edge ethics classes at Stanford University and serves as Vice Chair of Court of Governors of the London School of Economics and Political Science and as Chair of LSE's Ethics Policy Committee. She brings broad global experience with ethics and governance to business, non-profit, governmental and academic organizations and leaders. She also founded the non-profit Ethics Incubator, a platform for debate on today's most pressing ethics issues. She currently serves on the French Ambassador's Foreign Trade Advisory Council in the UK and on several non-profit boards, including: recent past Chair of the Doctors Without Borders/Médecins Sans Frontières US Advisory Board; Pasteur Institute; Global Supervisory Board of Care International; and Vice Chair of the American Hospital of Paris Board of Governors).

Her past professional experience includes international corporate, financial, and transactional lawyer at Sullivan & Cromwell in Paris and New York. She also served as Associate Dean for International and Graduate Programs, Director of the Transnational Business Law Program, and Lecturer in Law at Stanford University Law School. Susan also a Visiting Scholar at the Stanford Center of Philanthropy and Civil Society from 2012 to 2015.

Susan holds a PhD in Social Policy from the London School of Economics and Political Science; a Juris Doctor from Columbia University Law School; a M.A. in Chinese Studies from University of London School of Oriental and African Studies; a M.A. and two B.A.s from Stanford University.