

Franciscus Verellen

Historian of China, Member of the Institut de France and Former Director of the Ecole Française d'Extrême-Orient (2004-2014)

Franciscus Verellen is director of the French School of Asian Studies (EFEO) Hong Kong Centre and former director of the EFEO (2004-2014). An historian of medieval China, he is professor of Daoist Studies at the EFEO where he also served as head of the Taipei and Hong Kong Centers and of the Chinese Studies division.

Franciscus Verellen has published widely in the fields of regional cultural history and Daoism, including Du Guangting (850-933): taoïste de cour à la fin de la Chine médiévale, Collège de France, 1989, and The Taoist canon: A historical companion to the Daozang, 3 volumes, edited with Kristofer Schipper, The University of Chicago Press, 2004 (Association of American Publishers 2005 Award for Excellence in Professional and Scholarly Publishing, American Academy of Religion 2007 Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion).

After doctoral studies at Oxford and Paris, Franciscus Verellen taught at Columbia University, New York, and the Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes, Paris. He held visiting appointments at Princeton University, the University of California at Berkeley, and the Chinese University of Hong Kong. Verellen is an honorary research fellow in the University of Hong Kong and a member of the International Advisory Board and Senior Research Fellow of the Institute of Chinese Studies, the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Stewart Lecturer in the Humanities at Princeton University in 2005, Verellen was elected a member of the Academy of Inscriptions and Belles-Lettres, Institut de France, in 2008. He was a member and Edwin C. and Elisabeth A. Whitehead Fellow in the School of Historical Studies, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, in 2009-2010. In 2010-2012 he was named Distinguished Adjunct Researcher at Renmin University, Beijing. A member of numerous academic governing boards and commissions Franciscus Verellen serves since 2013 as an expert of the Advisory Group "Horizon 2020" to the European Commission.

Franciscus Verellen is a knight of the French Legion of Honour, an officer of the order Palmes Académiques, and an officer of the Royal Order of Cambodia.