

H.S.H. Prince Michael of Liechtenstein

Founder and Chairman of Geopolitical Intelligence Services AG,
Vaduz

H.S.H. Prince Michael of Liechtenstein studied commerce at the Vienna University of Economics and Business, and consolidated his studies by assignments to the banking and industrial sectors in Belgium, Canada and the USA.

From 1978 to 1987 he worked for Nestlé SA in the fields of controlling, management and marketing on various markets in Europe and Africa. In 1987 he took over the management of Industrie- und Finanzkontor in Vaduz (Liechtenstein), an international advisory and fiduciary trust company, where he now holds the position of President.

He is President of the think tank ECAEF (European Centre of Austrian Economics Foundation), based in Vaduz as well as founder and chairman of GIS (Geopolitical Intelligence Services AG), Vaduz. GIS aims to create a vibrant community of users interested in scenarios on politics, economics, defense & security.