

Jacques Beltran

Special advisor to Valérie Pécresse, President of Paris Region, in charge of European and International affairs

He started his career as research fellow at the French Institute of International Relations (IFRI), focusing on European security and transatlantic relations. In 2003, he joined EADS-AIRBUS as senior manager in charge of international development. In 2005, he was appointed diplomatic advisor to the French Minister of Transport and Infrastructure, D. Perben. From 2007 to 2015 he worked for Alstom group, in the energy and rail transportation sector, in different capacities : VP public affairs, Senior VP Asia-Pacific, Senio VP Europe-CIS and finally Head of sales and marketing for Alstom transport France.

Back to the public sector in 2016, he joins the regional council of Paris Region, first as deputy director general, in charge of European affairs, international cooperation and tourism ; and since September 1st 2017 as special advisor to the President of Paris Region.

He graduated from Sciences Po Paris and from INSEAD (advanced management program). He is a member of the young global leaders program of the World Economic Forum.