

Andrés Rozental

Eminent Ambassador of Mexico
President, Rozental & Asociados

Andrés Rozental was a career diplomat for more than 35 years, having served his country as Mexico's Ambassador to the United Kingdom from 1995 to 1997, as Deputy Foreign Minister (1988-1994), as Ambassador to Sweden (1983-1988). He was Mexico's Permanent Representative to the United Nations in Geneva (1982-1983), and has held senior responsibilities within the Mexican Foreign Ministry and abroad. Andrés founded the Mexican Council on Foreign Relations and since 1994, has the lifetime Rank of Eminent Ambassador.

Currently, Andrés holds non-executive board position in several important multinational companies in Europe and Mexico. He is the lead non-executive member of the board of HSBC Mexico, chairs the bank's Remuneration and Succession Committee and is a member of the Audit and Risk Committee. He currently holds advisory positions with Brookfield Asset Management, Toyota and Ingredion Mexico. He is President of his own consulting firm, Rozental & Asociados, which specializes in advising multinational companies on their corporate strategies in Mexico and Latin America. He is also active in a number of non-governmental organizations and projects relating to global governance, migration policy, climate change, Latin American politics and the promotion of democracy.

Ambassador Rozental is a senior policy advisor to Chatham House in London, sits on the Council of the International Institute for Strategic Studies and is the Founding President of the Mexican Council on Foreign Relations. Andrés obtained his professional degree in international relations from the Universidad de las Américas, Mexico, and a Master's in international economics from the University of Pennsylvania. He is the author of four books on Mexican foreign policy, numerous chapters in edited volumes on international affairs, and many articles on a variety of topics. He is a frequent contributor to both Mexican and foreign media.

July 2021