

Memduh Karakullukçu

Vice-Chairman and Founding President of the Global Relations Forum in Istanbul

Memduh Karakullukçu is the Vice-Chairman and Founding President (2009-2019) of the Global Relations Forum (GRF) in Istanbul. Previously, he advised Istanbul Technical University's (ITU) President and served as the Founding Managing Director of ITU ARI Science Park, Istanbul's leading technology entrepreneurship community. During this time he was also the strategic advisor at the University's Center for Satellite Communications.

He has served as a member of the academic staff at ITU and the LSE. Earlier in his career, he worked as a specialist in structured finance in London and Istanbul.

He studied electrical engineering and economy (BS) at MIT, finance (MSc) at the LSE and law (JD) at Columbia University.

Karakullukçu is a regular commentator at international fora, carving an intellectual space at the interface of geopolitics, geoeconomics and technology. His policy work includes technology and development, technology and security, global energy dynamics, European energy security and global economic/financial governance.

Karakullukçu continues to serve as the Managing Partner of his consultancy firm, Kroton Consulting and the Founding Partner of the legal informatics initiative kanunum.com. He is a member of the New York State Bar.