

Nadia Benali

Secretary General, Ministry of Youth and Sports

Nadia Benali holds a Ph.D. in Economics and a Post Graduate Diploma in Management from ISCAE.

Mrs BENALI, is an active member in associations with social connotation. She has cumulated more than 20 years of experience in many high level positions in both Ministry of Economy and Finance and the Ministry of Youth and Sports where she is currently Secretary General. After working at the General Inspection of Finances,

Ms Benali moved to the Budget Department as head of service of the productive sectors and head of the division of the social sectors and National Director of the Center of Excellence for gender budgeting in which she was member of the Steering Committee of the National Strategy for Equality " IKRAM ".

In her various roles, she has participated in several national and international events on the GRB and in the reflections and the preparation of strategies and related legal devices. She also conducted the management audit of state-owned companies, certain public institutions, audit of projects financed in the framework of international cooperation and the performance audit of ministerial departments.

She continues her fight for equality at the level of the Ministry of Youth and Sports through the creation of the center of excellence for volunteering and the integration of the gender dimension in all the programs and actions of this ministry.