

Nadia Motii

Advisor in charge of International Relations, Mohamed V University of Rabat

Dr. Nadia MOTII has been serving as a Professor of Business Management and Human Resources at the University Mohammed V in Rabat for over 25 years. Her areas of expertise and interest include Business studies, Higher Education Quality, International Relations and Politics.

She was entrusted as Advisor to the President of Mohammed V University, in charge of international cooperation. She also consulted on projects pertaining to development, education and governance with several NGOs and international institutions including the UNDP, Africa Humanitarian Action, the Ministry for Civil Service and Administrative Reform where she served in the Cabinet of the Minister in charge of UN and UNDP projects in the MENA region. Her most recent involvement and advocacy role was at the 2019 United Nations High-Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development and the High-Segment of the Economic and Social Council.

Dr. Nadia MOTII earned her Master's in Public Affairs at the American University in Washington DC, and her Doctorat d'Etat in Economic Sciences from the Faculty of Juridical, Economic and Social Sciences in Casablanca. She represented her University and consulted on several global issues in the four parts of the globe as part of forums, conferences and projects.

Besides her scientific research activities and teaching commitments, Dr MOTII remains very active in the civil society.